

Karen's Credo

What I Know...

I love the first three letters of the alphabet- ABC... Always Be Creating.

I know my camera drives me to be creative. It teaches me to look, to grasp the views around me. It's a spice of life, it's what keeps me excited and at the top of my game.

I know that being fully alive makes me happy, while being present.

I know it is less about getting it right and more about getting it started.

I know when I let go of the fear of not knowing how to do something and just do it, that I figure out who I am.

I know that when I share my creativity, I am inspiring someone.

I know that at the first sign of light as a new day arrives, I will create around it.

I KNOW THAT ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE, IF YOU HAVE THE WILL AND DESIRE TO DO IT.

I know that every day I will create something amazing.

I know too much wondering creates too much wandering.

I know that playing a Bigger Game will make your dreams and goals come alive.

Karen's Credo

I know that life is unpredictable, so I live my life to the fullest, enjoying every moment while creating something everyday.

I know that life is beautiful.

I know that sometimes I need help with all that I wish to create.

I know that my world is all made up. Which leads to the big question...
What will I create today?

I know that when I create, I feel alive.

KAREN GRANT CREATES
